3. Miscellaneous.

1) ASSETSState Emergency Relief (ERM) 205

Updated cash assets to cash/liquid assets.

Reason: Policy update.

2) ENERGY
SERVICES*ERM 301

Updated need amount that can be used to process an energy request from the minimum amount to the past due amount:

When the group's heat or electric service for their current residence is in past due status, in threat of shutoff, or is already shut off and must be restored, payment may be authorized to the enrolled provider. The SER should be processed using the past due amount. Payment must resolve the emergency by restoring or continuing the service for at least 30 calendar days. Current bills that are not past due or subject to shutoff should not be included in the amount needed.

Added delivery fees as a covered deposit/reconnect fee service.

Reason: Policy update.

3) MISCELLANEOUSERM 202, 208, 301 and 302

Updated references of alien to non-citizen.

Reason: Michigan Department of Health and Humans Services (MDHHS) strategic goal.
